Dear Senator Stennis:

We are in the process of developing plans for this year's convention of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Association. I have attached a copy of a letter we wrote to Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, asking him to deliver the principal address at our banquet.

I would appreciate it if your office might be able to express your interest in having Admiral Turner visit Mississippi for this occasion. I am confident that some encouragement on your part may be beneficial in having the Admiral work our request into his very busy schedule.

We thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Owen Davis

Dear Mr. Davis:

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of April-3rd, and-for-your kind invitation for him to address the annual convention of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Association on June 13th. Unfortunately, the Admiral has so many events already scheduled far into 1978 that it is impossible to accept any additional commitments.

He very much regrets that he will be unable to join you but sends his very best for a successful convention.

Sincerely,

Herbert E. Hetu

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

I realize that you have a very demanding schedule, but we in law enforcement in Mississippi would consider it a very distinct pleasure if you would accept our invitation to deliver the principal address on June 13 at the annual convention of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers Association. Approximately 500 law enforcement officers from throughout Mississippi (including municipal, county, state and federal law enforcement agency representatives) will be attending the convention here in Pascagoula.

In planning our program for this year's convention, we have attempted to break away from the traditional approach and are trying to develop a convention program that would expose our members to those aspects of citizen protection and security that are quite often overlooked as we go about our daily task of enforcing routine laws. A presentation, by you, on the overall role of the Central Intelligence Agency and if possible, more specifically, how we as law enforcement officers can add to and contribute to a stronger national security, would fit ideally into our program.

The June 13th banquet, at which we would like you to speak, would be the highlight event of our 3-day convention. And, I can assure you that here in Mississippi, you can be guaranteed a very warm and hospitable reception. The work of the Central Intelligence Agency is held in high esteem within law enforcement in Mississippi, and the Board of Directors of our Association is encouraged by the possibility of having you join us at our convention.

We look forward to hearing from you in the near future and do hope that your schedule will permit your participation.

Sincerely,
